

Neighbourhood Watch in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby

eNewsletter # 329 - 29 January 2018

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring-gai LAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

📧 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

📧 Please feel free to share/forward this eNewsletter with your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours.

Kids return to school in the coming days.
Remind them about stranger danger and staying safe
when you aren't around.

As kids return to school in the coming days, it is important to arm them with the right advice to help keep them safe.

1. Walking with a friend or group of friends is safer and more fun.
2. Always look left and right for traffic before crossing the road.
3. Always use a pedestrian crossing.
4. Know the people in your community you can trust. These people could include teachers, doctors, nurses, shopkeepers, bus drivers and police.
5. Find places you feel safe that you can go to when you feel unsafe or unsure. These places could include hospitals, schools, shops, neighbours, friend's houses and police stations.
6. Never talk to strangers or get into strange cars.
7. When on the train, travel in a crowded carriage or the guards compartment (it's the one with the blue light).
8. Try to always walk where there are lots of people.
9. Don't take short cuts. Remember, it's okay to say NO if you feel unsafe or unsure.
10. Call 000 if you are scared or in danger.

27 January, from Traffic and Highway Patrol Command - NSW Police Force

Dangerous state of mind

Cannabis – marijuana, weed, hash

Cannabis slows down your reactions and reduces your ability to respond to situations. The drug changes your perception of distance and time, lowers your concentration, reduces coordination and makes you drowsy.

Cannabis users often don't realise their driving is affected until they are faced with an unexpected situation. It is only after they are in danger that they realise they are incapable of making a quick or correct decision.

Stimulants – speed, ecstasy, cocaine

If you take stimulants such as ecstasy, cocaine or any form of amphetamine (speed, crystal meth, base) you are likely to:

Believe you drive better than you actually can

Drive aggressively and take more risks

Be overstimulated and lose concentration

Have blurry or limited vision

See things on the road that aren't where you think they are Driving when you're coming down is also dangerous, when the effects of the stimulants wearing off can be just as damaging to your coordination and ability to concentrate. You may also fall asleep at the wheel.

Opiates – heroin, methadone, codeine

Using heroin and other opiates such as morphine, codeine and methadone:

Makes you sleepy

Slows your reaction times

Makes you lose balance, coordination and concentration

Reduces your ability to pay attention to what's happening on the road

Combining alcohol and opiates multiplies the depressant effects of both drugs, even if only small quantities are used. You will feel drowsy, uncoordinated and be more at risk of falling asleep at the wheel.

Other illegal drugs also affect your driving. Do not drive if you have taken any illegal drugs.

25 January, from the Daily Telegraph: Riders show no fear after almost 100 incidents on Old Pacific Highway at Cowan

ANOTHER fatality on a stretch of the Old Pacific Highway in Cowan has prompted residents to call for urgent action to avert more tragedies.

Ku-ring-gai police are investigating a fatal motorcycle crash just before noon on Saturday, January 20, after a 19-year-old man suffered critical injuries and died at the scene. It prompted Cowan residents and witnesses to call on the State Government to enforce tough new strategies to save lives on the deadly road.

REPORT FROM 'All Areas' Neighbourhood Watch meeting @ Hornsby Police station @ 6pm on Monday 22 January 2018

Our Acting Crime Prevention Officer, Snr Cst Mal Baker of Ku-ring-gai Police command, warned us about a few issues in our area:

- An increase in the amount of number plates stolen. (This is directly linked to the increase in petrol prices).
- An increase in letterbox theft, especially around Gordon, Killara and St Ives. This is particularly happening at unit blocks. Ku-ring-gai Police have cctv they are working with, showing a person using a PIN code and entering the building to access the mail. DO NOT give out building PIN codes to friends/family/tradies.
- Break & Enter into a unit building car park area - a car broken into was reported to the police, but not other cars that had been attempted. The Police need a complete picture - please report all attempts at crime, which are just as important. Please phone Hornsby Police Station if this happens to you: 9476 9799.

The launch of our new website WatchOut! is planned for Wednesday 14 February 2018, Valentine's Day: "Love our Links". Please take a look at this innovative site. ### From Hornsby Council:

Shared Zone

A Shared Zone is a road or network of roads where the road space is shared safely by vehicles and pedestrians.

There may be no road lines, kerb or gutter in a Shared Zone to show that pedestrians and vehicles are equal. Drivers must travel at a lower speed to better able to control their vehicles and safely avoid impact with other road users.

Dog attack sparks call for action. Owner wants better signs and simpler safety procedures, page 4 [edited]

A WOMAN whose dog was attacked at a beach in Mosman has taken a stand to work towards making the community safer.

Monica Watts, owner of four-year-old rescue dog Hunter, said she was determined to help change the way people report and react to dangerous animals in the community, following an unexpected incident which hospitalised her pooch.

Hunter, a beagle-fox terrier cross, had to undergo a round of surgery, she added, after being attacked by an off-leash, unmuzzled dog at Sirius Cove on January 12.

Thieves net tools:

NORTHBRIDGE business owners are appealing for public assistance, following the theft of $4800 worth of tools in recent weeks. Sailors Bay Plumbing's Charlotte Hunter, 38, said the team of three were devastated when they discovered the tools missing and asked the public to keep an eye out for a used Ridgid NaviTrack scout locator (example pictured above), a battery sonde, a milwaukee m18 vacuum, two-piece drill kit, hammer, saw and angle grinder in red casings. The robbery occurred between January 13 and 15, at either Northbridge or Killarney Heights.

TEST TIME: Is the white car required to indicate right in the above scenario?

- Yes
- No

The NRMA TEST ANSWER: The correct answer is Yes. The vehicle is travelling onto the terminating road at a T-intersection (the continuing road marked with broken white lines goes around the corner) In this scenario, the vehicle must signal right to leave the continuing road to enter the terminating road. Did you get this one right?

24 January, from Australian Federal Police

Thatta' boy!

After 8 years, 9 months and 1 day with his nose to the ground as an AFP Firearms and Explosives Detection dog, Keogh's finished his last shift at the Sydney Airport.

He's spent his career working for one simple reward – a towel to play with.

So we surprised him with ALL of the towels, so he could play as much tug of war and fetch in the terminal as he liked.

Over his career he's had a few highlights- he's screened a couple of high profile events and got some pats from some pretty big VIPs (he doesn't like to name drop, but we hear he met former POTUS Barack Obama, Her Majesty the Queen, and Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge along with Prince George); he's been involved in some high profile counter-terrorism and organised crime operations; but his biggest career highlight of all is his friendship with his handler, Luke.

They graduated from the canine course together, and have worked their entire careers side by side for nearly a decade.

And now, Keogh's retiring to Luke's backyard, where he'll get to spend time with his brother (and former AFP detection dog) Koby.

Thanks for all your service buddy.
