

Neighbourhood Watch in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby

eNewsletter # 354 - 23 July 2018

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring-gai PAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

🚗 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

🚗 Please feel free to share/forward this eNewsletter with your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours.

23 July, from NSW Road Safety: Lights flash on the back of buses to warn motorists that they are dropping off or picking up kids

By law, a driver must not overtake or pass a bus with flashing lights at more than 40km/h.

More info on Bus Flashing Lights here.

23 July, from NSW Government: Black boxes” are set to be installed in 1,000 young drivers’ cars in a new trial aimed at reducing road deaths and lowering Green Slip prices. 🚗🚑

The device will link to driver smartphones and record behaviour like speed, acceleration, braking and turning. Participants will get feedback on how they performed to help them become better drivers.

20 July, from 7News Sydney: Thousands of Sydney drivers are getting high, and then getting behind the wheel, many with a cocktail of drugs in their system.

7 News has obtained official figures revealing nearly 20,000 have tested positive over just 2 years prompting a boost in mobile testing.

New Drug Driving Laws: "The (new) legislation...rather than having a list of drugs, will define that any drug in the person's system that's impairing them, at a level that is impairing their driving, police can arrest them" - Bernard Carlon - Centre for Road Safety.

19 July, from the Office of the eSafety Commissioner: Did you know? Almost 1 in 3 teens are accessing the internet between 10pm and midnight.

Here are 7 ways parents can manage web connected devices in the home.

More info here.

7 WAYS

Parental controls can keep kids safe on many screens

They can:

- ✓ Block sexually explicit sites
- ✓ Set screen time limits
- ✓ Block in-app purchases
- ✓ Block numbers and SMS
- ✓ Allow or block websites
- ✓ Restrict chat features
- ✓ Allow parental monitoring

17 July, from 7News Sydney: Drivers caught using their mobile phone risk losing more demerit points under new laws.

It will also soon be illegal to drive under the influence of prescription medication. This includes legal drugs like codeine which is found in many cold and flu tablets. The changes come into force in September. "If you think about long weekends or double demerit periods you could actually be at risk of losing your licence."

Creating Safer Communities

22 July, from Pymble & West Pymble Community group: Just thought I should pass this on in case some one saw something....

Yesterday 37 Pymble Ave was broken into.

Jane wrote, between about 5 - 6pm yesterday evening, we were broken into and all jewellery and a few other things stolen. House was all locked, alarm was on but they climbed up (perhaps via a downpipe!) to the very small toilet window on the second storey at the back, removed the screen and squeezed through. They could not have been long in the house. Unfortunately very professional, no fingerprints were found by police and the police dog couldn't get their trail. We are not sure but we suspect a white SUV (Hyundai or similar parked directly outside our house at No 37) was their escape vehicle.

If anyone noticed that car or anything else, we'd of course love to hear from you.

Thanks, Jane

22 July, shared from Mt Colah/Ku-ring-gai Families: Good evening people

Just a warning Asquith dog park , if you're in the know has a kiddy pool shell ! My daughter tipped out the Smirnoff vodka this morning washed the pool out and refilled it with fresh water . Just be aware we do have low life scum living in the area that are willing to harm our fur babies .

22 July, from Australia Cybercrime Watch: End unlicensed software use in Australia

21 July, shared from Mt Colah/Ku-ring-gai Families group.

Hi all

Just trying to look out for anyone within the community with this message.

Our house has been broken into on Nyara road at Mount Kuring Gai. Bit of a strange coincidence seeing as my car was also rummaged through about a month ago.

Police have been contacted and are on their way.

We have seen a suspicious person in a camary (silver) sitting outside our house.

We had been out for the space of two hours so someone has been watching and been doing their research.

Please look out for your neighbors

21 July, shared from East Wahroonga Community group.

My fathers house in Westbrook ave between Boundary road and Golden Jubilee Oval was broken into yesterday, sometime between 9am and 6pm. If anyone was walking or driving past that area and saw anything suspicious please inbox me. I know that there have been a few break-ins recently, so please be safe!

21 July, from NSW Police: Police are appealing for public assistance to locate a man wanted by detectives in Redfern.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Josiah Burton, aged 31, over the alleged manufacturing of a commercial quantity of prohibited drugs. Detectives from Redfern Police Area Command have conducted searches to locate him and are now appealing for public assistance. He is described as being of Caucasian appearance, approximately 165cm to 170cm tall, of medium build and has brown hair.

Anyone who sees him or believes they know his whereabouts is urged to contact Triple Zero (000) immediately.

THE NSW Firearms Amnesty is under way. The aim of the amnesty is to improve public safety by reducing the number of unregistered firearms and firearm-related articles in the community. Any person who is in possession of a firearm and who no longer wishes to keep it is encouraged to hand it in at their local police station. People can also take the opportunity to surrender their firearms licence. On July 11, a Mosman man handed in a firearm to North Sydney Police. The weapon belonged to his grandfather and was never used.

ROSEVILLE CHASE A Frenchs Forest man was viciously attacked while carrying out a Gumtree sale in Roseville Chase. The man had listed a new iPhone X on Gumtree and arranged to meet with a potential buyer in Allen St on July 15. Police said that at 9pm the seller met with two males to execute the transaction when one of the offenders struck him in the back of the head and in the face more than 10 times. The offenders, one caucasian and one of Mediterranean appearance, took the phone and fled.

20 July, from Hornsby Shire Council: We all know how to shop, but do you know what to do if the deal turns sour?

Hornsby Library will help you out with Your Shopping Rights, a presentation that explains the key points of the Australian Consumer Law as it applies to you when buying goods or services. It will cover a range of topics, such as when you can get a refund and whether extended warranties are worth the extra money.

Thursday 26 July @ 6:30pm, a FREE presentation by the Dept of Fair Trading - Be Scam Aware.

HORNSBY A 34-year-old man has been charged with stealing after walking out of a Woolworths supermarket without paying for 45 containers of A2 baby formula. The man allegedly filled reusable bags with the containers and was spotted by staff walking out of the store at Westfield Hornsby on Monday about noon. Security approached him and brought him back to the store. Police charged the man with stealing and also found other goods, believed to be stolen, in his vehicle. He will face Hornsby Court on September 3.

HORNSBY Police are asking pedestrians to take care and remain vigilant when crossing roads in Hornsby after the latest pedestrian death in the suburb. A 68-year-old woman died after being hit by a truck at the intersection of Burdett St and Sherbrook Rd on Friday, July 6. It is the third pedestrian fatality since December in Hornsby. Police said an investigation into the latest fatality was continuing, but they asked pedestrians to stay extra vigilant when crossing roads.

NORMANHURST An elderly resident has been robbed after letting a man, pretending to be a tradie, into their home on Redgrave Rd. The incident happened last Wednesday about 10am. A man posing as a fencing tradesman tricked the resident to letting him inside the property. While inside, the man stole a large amount of cash from a wallet. Police said this was not an isolated incident and they urged residents to be vigilant and not to allow tradespeople into their homes if they were suspicious. Police said it was a good rule of thumb to check the credentials of a tradesperson if they knocked on your door.

NORTH TURRAMURRA A 20-year-old man from North Turramurra has been charged with highrange drink driving. Police attended a minor crash on the Pacific Highway near Killara on June 30 about 10.35pm. The man failed a roadside breath test and was taken to Hornsby police station where he returned a blood-alcohol level of 0.202. He will face Hornsby Local Court on August 9.

We have removed the original post that shared the article on our timelines. The eNewsletter #353A now replaces the original #353 version shared on Facebook.

18 July, from NSW Police: Police have charged a man after seizing cannabis plants worth more than $1 million in Sydney's north-west today.

Strike Force Tassie-18 was formed by officers from North West Metropolitan Region Enforcement Squad to investigate the cultivation of cannabis in Sydney's north-west area. Following inquiries, strike force investigators executed a search warrant in Castle Hill Road, near Old Northern Road, at Castle Hill about 7.30am (Wednesday 18 July 2018).

From Hornsby Shire Council: Can I park my boat on the street?

Hornsby Shire Council has joined councils across Sydney to enforce new laws that make it illegal to park boat trailers on residential streets for an unlimited time. Boat trailers are now restricted from parking on residential streets for more than 28 days and offending trailers will be impounded. These laws are mainly targeted at people from other areas who use their boat a couple of times a year and leave it on our shire's streets the rest of the time.

From "Our 20 Favourite Crime Prevention Tips for Travel":

Tip #12: CONSIDER A REDUCED CREDIT LIMIT on a credit card purely for your overseas travel. Let the bank know of your trip. To avoid being over-charged, consider using a currency exchange mobile phone App such as XE Currency. Consider wearing a hidden wallet (that attaches to a belt and tucks inside your pant's leg). Use a wallet/bag/passport holder with RFID protection.

Tip #13: TRY AND LOOK LIKE A LOCAL. Respect local customs and culture. Drink in moderation. Try and plan routes with maps INSIDE the hotel or inconspicuously when out. Download local maps prior to departure. Research the area and routes, using 'Street View' to familiarise yourself. Avoid beaches at night, as they are usually not patrolled.

Tip #14: BEWARE PUBLIC AND FREE WI-FI unsecured by password, such as at airports and hotels.

Tip #15: ALWAYS REPORT ANTI-SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR or harassment. Familiarise yourself with local emergency numbers and program them into your phone (see Australia below).

Tip #16: REQUEST A ROOM ON A FLOOR OTHER THAN THE LOWEST – most crimes happen on the lower floors. Acquire or photograph the fire escape plan on the back of your hotel door. Keep a flashlight next to the bed and within arm's reach.
