

Neighbourhood Watch in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby

eNewsletter # 355 - 30 July 2018

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in Ku-ring-gai and Hornsby council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring-gai PAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

🚗 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

🚗 Please feel free to share/forward this eNewsletter with your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours.

30 July, from Ku-ring-gai Bush Fire Brigade

A new road rule comes into force from 1 September, meaning motorists will have to slow down to 40 km/h when passing a stationary emergency service vehicle.

Over the coming weeks Transport for NSW will be carrying out a new public awareness campaign to help promote the road rule change.

28 July, from Crime Stoppers NSW: Tips for parents whose children are attending parties [Edited]

As a parent or guardian you have the responsibility to ensure the safety of your children.

📞 Make sure that your child has change for the phone, a phone card or a mobile phone. If you are going out, make sure that they can contact you or another responsible adult should they need assistance.

🚒 @ You should ensure that your child has the Emergency + App downloaded onto their phone in case of emergency. You can download the app:

Where possible contact the adult responsible for the party and check if there is going to be supervision. You may suggest that they check out this information if they have not already.

🍷 🍷 Is alcohol going to be served or permitted at the party?

Remember that it is an offence to supply alcohol to a minor.

 Would your child be able to get home if he/she needs to?

Make sure that your child is able to get home should he/she need to. Consider giving your child enough money to catch a taxi home in an urgent situation or leave enough money in an agreed place at home.

27 July, from 9news.com.au: Boy charged with attempted murder of pregnant woman had 'not been violent before'

The father of a teenage boy accused of a shocking stabbing attack on a pregnant woman claims his son hasn't been violent before.

The 14-year-old was last night charged with attempted murder of Pei-Jiun Cheah, who was stabbed multiple times in the chest and abdomen after allegedly confronting him in her Mount Colah home on Thursday evening.

The child's father, who cannot be named, spoke briefly to reporters after being called in to speak to police investigating the attack in Sydney's north yesterday. He said he was "disappointed" but did not specify why.

Ms Cheah managed to fight off the boy before staggering, blooded and screaming, to her neighbour's home where she banged on the door for help.

Her screams rang out through the stately cul-de-sac, neighbour Mark Bolger said today.

"She just knocked on our door and said 'I've been attacked help me, help me'," he told reporters.

24 July, from Traffic and Highway Patrol Command - NSW Police Force

About 6:50pm Sunday the 8th of July 2018 Southern Tablelands (Cooma) Highway stopped a tour coach on Sharp Street, Cooma following a driving complaint. The coach had 60 passengers on board. The driver was subjected to random testing and returned positive to Methylamphetamine.

The driver, a 37 year old male from Sydney was arrested and taken back to Cooma Police Station for secondary testing.

Arrangements were made for another driver to attend and continue driving the bus load of passengers.

An oral fluid sample was obtained from the driver and sent away for laboratory analysis. The sample has returned positive to methylamphetamine.

The driver has since been charged with drive with illicit drug in oral fluid sample.

The matter is listed for mention at the Cooma Local Court at a later date.

29 July, from 9News.com.au: Facial Recognition Technology set for top sporting venues Suspected terrorists and football hooligans will be locked out of Queensland stadiums under new cutting-edge facial recognition technology.

The equipment, which is expected to be installed at the state's major sporting facilities, will work by matching banned spectators and persons of interest against a national database to stop potential threats before they reach the venue.

It is expected the technology will be able to identify people up to one-kilometre away. Read details here.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTION #2:

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I HEAR AN INTRUDER IN MY HOME?

Best advice is to scream, run and hide. Try and keep a line of retreat open at all times. If possible, lock yourself in a room. Barricade yourself in a room if you have to. Do NOT confront the intruder. PHONE 000. You might only have a few seconds to get the call in. State "I am at (give address) and there is person(s) on premises; I fear for the welfare of myself and family". Police will respond 'code red'.

Only fight an intruder if you have no other choice. Just think, if you get killed or incapacitated then who is going to protect your partner/kids, let alone support them if you die? Possessions are not worth dying for. Keep a pre-programmed mobile phone by the bed. And a large million candle power torch is recommended, as it has the added bonus of being able to blind an attacker. A flash (just a flash) of light in their eyes will rob them of their night vision, so they are going to be severely hindered if they try to run off in the dark, where as you have the advantage of knowing the layout of your place. When you flash, just-in-case, keep one eye shut.

If someone is prepared to enter a home knowing someone is in residence, it can be taken as a fact they would be prepared to confront anyone who challenges them.

RELATED FACTS: Is the front gate to your property locked? If so, then you must provide a bell, buzzer or method for a person to alert you they are there. Otherwise they have a common law right to go to your front door. Even if that includes jumping the fence or gate.

26 July, from startsat60.com: The smartest ways to carry and spend your holiday money abroad

Our love affair with overseas travel shows no signs of easing up, with Aussies taking more than one million trips overseas in the 12 months to January 2018, according to the Australian Bureau of Statistics. That's up six per cent for the same period the previous year. And older Aussies are the keenest travellers of all, making up to 80 per cent of all leisure travel purchases!

But before you head off, it's worth planning how you'll carry and access money when you're overseas. Banks and travel companies change their product offerings and fees from time to time so the most cost-effective and safest ways of paying for your adventures may've changed since last time you went abroad.

Cash, debit, credit cards and travel money cards – there are pros and cons for each, which we've set out so you can decide which combination is right for you.

CHATSWOOD

1 A 30-year-old Inverell man has been charged with drug possession. Around 12.40pm on July 22, police said, the man entered Chatswood police station, seeking assistance as he could not remember where he had left his car. Officers alleged they detected the smell of cannabis and that the man's eyes were glazed and his speech was slurred. They said they asked the man for identification and that, while searching his pockets, he removed a container full of a substance believed to be cannabis. Police allege the man then left the police station and placed the container on the ground and then claimed he had no knowledge of the container. The man was arrested and will face court.

Man threatened to kill and dismember terrified mother

A MOTHER of three says she is having trouble sleeping and is anxious going out in public after a man threatened to kill and dismember her in a tirade of abuse at Westfield Hornsby.

The woman was in the parents' room on Monday about 12.30pm after taking her children aged one, two and four to the library.

A man entered the room without any children.

The mum, who did not want to be named, said when she turned around the man was staring at her family.

"At that point I said 'What are you doing in here?'

"He immediately lost the plot and was not reasonable. He just went off."

She said he had saliva coming out of his mouth and was threatening her.

"He was shouting names and threatening violence."

She said he threatened to kill and dismember her and told her to go back to New Zealand and that she did not belong in Australia.

The man was standing between her and the door and she frantically tried to find a number on her phone to call mall security.

Another mum in the room managed to escape past the man while another, who was behind a curtain breastfeeding, managed to contact security.

By the time security arrived the man had just left.

The woman said the man seemed mentally ill but there was still no excuse for the tirade.

“My children have been asking ‘Why did he want to kill you mummy?,” she said.

“And my four-year-old said it was the scariest thing she has experienced.”

She contacted police after anxiously racing home. Police visited her house that day and took a report.

Ku-ring-gai police crime manager Detective Inspector Neil Higgins said police were taking the complaint very seriously. He said they were reviewing CCTV footage and were investigating the incident.

25 July, from 9news.com.au: M2 fatal: Truck driver killed by ute after breakdown

The death of a Sydney man hit and killed by a ute while checking on his broken-down truck on a busy motorway was witnessed by his girlfriend, who'd just arrived on the scene.

Jesse Barclay was on his way home from work when he had to pull into the emergency lane on the M2 at Baulkham Hills last night.

Police say the 23-year-old was moving around the vehicle when he was hit by a ute travelling westbound just after 7.30pm.

Have any of you answered one of these posts on social media lately? You may want to be more careful of what you're sharing.

Please be aware of some of the posts you comment on. The posts that ask what was your favorite teachers name, who was your first grade teacher, who was your childhood best friend, your first car, the place you born, your favorite place, your first pet, where did you go on your first flight, Etc...Those are the same questions asked when setting up accounts as security questions. You are giving out the answers to your security questions without realizing it. Hackers are setting these up as a get to know each other better game. They then build a profile of you from several different data sources. They use this data to hack your accounts or open lines of credit in your name.

There was nothing to take but all bbq area cupboard doors were left open. Police have been informed. We have a large dog but he is inside with me as I don't feel safe in the house. I have lived on the north shore 15 years and have never felt this unsafe. We have lived on Westbrook since April and this is the second break in over that time.

24 July, from IDCARE

Blackmail/extortion scams are a common occurrence in the cyber world and during the month of July, IDCARE has observed a noticeable increase in such reports. The reports have risen by 90% since June and scammers are displaying new behaviour. Based on those stats, the scammers are experiencing a greater success rate since changing their techniques. These events are a constant reminder of the creative ways in which criminals will use seemingly innocent technological advancements and even years old data exposures to their advantage. 24 July, from Crime Stoppers NSW: WHAT TO DO IF A LOVED ONE GOES MISSING?

As soon as you become aware that a friend or family member might be missing you can contact police. Contrary to popular belief, you do not need to wait for 24 or 48 hours to make a missing person's report.

Missing Person reports must be made in person at any police station or you can contact the Police Assistance Line on 131 444 (24/7) to request a police car is dispatched to your location.

When making your report, it will help Police if you bring along the following information:

- 1/ A recent photograph of the missing person
- 2/ A list of the names, addresses and phone numbers of friends and associates
- 3/ Likely destinations such as favourite places, work locations or places with past connections
- 4/ Any medical requirements or medications they need
- 5/ A full description of the missing person including height, weight, colour of eyes and hair
- 6/ Bank account details.

Always call Triple Zero (000) in an emergency.

We are trying to create a poster/sign for residents to display on their grass areas where there is a dog poo problem. Is there a volunteer who would like to knit some dog poo like in the photo? (Photo thanks to Oregon Rainy Day Woman.) Or anyone else have any good ideas we can incorporate please?
