

Kuring Gai NSW Police Local Area Command (LAC)

Newsletter # 153 - 01 September 2014

This email is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in the Kuring Gai Police Local Area Command (LAC), which includes the Hornsby and Ku-ring-gai areas. Anyone may join our distribution list by emailing: NHWGordon@gmail.com.

Each weekly update includes a selection of 'posts' from the Kuring Gai LAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'). One important post on the Monday is the Media Release from our Crime Prevention Officer.

We add to this all the other stuff we find interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view. It could be local newspaper articles, roadwork warnings, crime prevention tips, Neighbourhood Watch meetings and relevant tit-bits gleaned from residents, or other Commands. Have you seen anything we should share with the community?

Please continue to email us anything that others may appreciate: NHWGordon@gmail.com. Thank you.

01 September: Hornsby police would like to warn people of an incident that occurred in Wahroonga on Friday 22nd August.

About 4.45pm a female has got off a train at Wahroonga and was walking on the northern side of the station along station lane. As the female walked past a man seated at a table, she gave a passing glance at him. The male then has commenced a tirade of abuse to the female which included some pretty foul and graphic language. The male also stated he just got out of gaol. The female obviously distraught at this has turn away and hurried to her car which was some distance away. The male has started following the female while still abusing her. The female has called police who stayed on the phone until she was in her car. The area was patrolled for the man but he had left the area and could not be found. A number of inquiries are being made into the matter.

We have heard of a similar incident nearby which has not been formally reported to police, so details of that incident are not known.

If you experience anything like this please make your way to a place of safety: this may include a business or shop, a home you know of or you see other people who may assist you. It is also important to call 000 immediately.

The male is described as about 40 years of age, with a slim build, Caucasian in appearance, dark eyes, grey hair and was unshaven, he was about 160 cm tall, wearing a black beanie, black t shirt and light blue jeans.

01 September, from the AFP: Yes folks, that's poo-covered pellets of heroin.

If you're a user, this is where your heroin could have come from. Internal concealment is a method used by some drug importers to try to get past our friends at the Australian Customs and Border Protection Service.

What the importers do is wrap the drugs into little parcels using balloons or something similar. These pellets are then swallowed, one by one, and the courier carries the drugs into our country in their stomach and bowel. Later, they go to the toilet and catch the pellets as they come out. Sometimes, the pellets burst before they're passed and the drug courier gets an unexpected overdose. This isn't funny - many have died.

This particular haul was allegedly brought in to Australia in the intestinal tract of a Japanese man. He was identified at Melbourne Airport on arrival and taken to a hospital where he is alleged to have passed 100 of these pellets, under close supervision. He's the lucky one. He may spend a considerable amount of the rest of his life in jail, but he's alive.

Internal concealment. That crap's not worth it.

29 August, from neighbouring Northern Beaches command: Organised Crime Squad detectives have arrested and charged a man after seizing more than 500 grams of cocaine from a home in northern Sydney.

As part of an ongoing investigation, detectives executed a search warrant at an apartment on Kentwell Road, Allambie Heights, around 1.30pm yesterday (Thursday 28 August 2014). Inside the property, officers located and seized 500 grams of cocaine, approximately 1.5 kilograms of a substance believed to be a cutting agent, 10 grams of cannabis and numerous items associated with the supply of drugs. A 27-year-old resident of the property was arrested and taken to Dee Why Police Station where he was charged with commercial drug supply.

Refused bail, the man is scheduled to appear in Manly Local Court today (Friday 29 August 2014).

The Commander of the Organised Crime Squad, Detective Superintendent Scott Cook, said the strong partnerships the squad had formed with other agencies continued to deliver excellent results. "This arrest resulted directly from our work with the Australian Crime Commission, Australian Federal Police, NSW Crime Commission and other law enforcement agencies on the Eligo National Taskforce," Detective Superintendent Cook said. "We're continuing to work closely with our Commonwealth, interstate and international colleagues to tackle organised criminal groups no matter where they may be operating in Australia or overseas."

29 August, from neighbouring Ryde command: Police are appealing for witnesses after a woman was left with serious spinal injuries following a single motor vehicle crash at North Ryde earlier in the year.

About 3.15am, Thursday 13 March 2014, a blue Peugeot 306 sedan was travelling east along Epping Road, near the intersection of Lyon Park Road, when it mounted a traffic island and crashed into a sign post. Police and NSW Ambulance Paramedics were called to the scene and a 19-year-old woman, who was a passenger in the vehicle, was taken to Royal North Shore Hospital in a serious condition. She underwent X-rays and scans and was transferred to the Intensive Care Unit for treatment of serious spinal injuries. A 24-year-old man, who was driving the car, was not injured in the crash and has been spoken to by police.

Detectives from Ryde Local Area Command are continuing investigations into the crash and are appealing for witnesses to come forward. They are particularly interested in hearing from anyone who may have seen the Peugeot driving along Epping Road prior to the crash. Information can be provided to Ryde Detectives on (02) 9859 9299 or Crime Stoppers 1 800 333 000.

28 August, from the Hornsby Advocate: Galston Gorge was blocked yet again. RMS, Hornsby Council the current 'deterrents' are NOT working. The trifecta is complete: A bus, a truck, and now a caravan have each become stuck in Galston Gorge in the last fortnight. Traffic has now been cleared. Picture: Olivia Dawson.

27 August, from Stay Smart Online: Google Chrome security updates now available. SSO Alert Priority High

Google has issued updates for Chrome, including 50 security fixes for a range of vulnerabilities it rates as high and critical.

For full warning and advice, click here.

27 August, from NSW Fair Trading: There has been a national recall of Infinity Electrical cables today after they failed electrical safety standards due to poor quality plastic insulation coating.

Householders and businesses that have had electrical wiring work carried out in the last few years should contact the responsible contractor, or a licensed electrician to confirm whether Infinity cables were used. Click here for full media release on the product recall.

27 August: Windscreen/Sunglasses Wipe. The idea is you leave this on the dashboard of your vehicle, as a reminder to yourself and as a note to potential thieves that you are crime savvy! These wipes are sought after, so come and get yours early. They shall be available at the 'Dads are Great!' crime prevention fun community event being held 10am til 2pm Saturday 06 September 2014 in the Pacific Highway entrance to the Gordon Centre. If you can't/couldn't make the 'Dads are Great! day, how about printing out this picture and popping the paper copy as a sign in your car windscreen?

From the 'All Areas' Neighbourhood Watch groups: Great news!

An application for funding from the Neighbourhood Watch Australasia Community Funding Program has been approved. Thank you to those who were at the last meeting of the 'All Areas' Neighbourhood Watch groups for all your suggestions and support. We did it!

With the funds (thanks to NHWA and the Australian Government) we can buy 2 stand-up banners, 10 polo shirts and 5,000 plastic goodie bags, all with the NHW logo and the message "If I don't see you, my neighbour will!". Plus 4 plastic boxes for storage. Here are pics of the mock-ups, yet to be agreed. They follow on from the design that was used for our banner that ties with ropes, the one FunFit kindly sponsored last year (thanks Tim).

These items will be for the use of all Neighbourhood Watch groups within the Kuring Gai LAC, for use at any community event or stall. Hopefully this will make us look more professional and increase awareness of Neighbourhood Watch. So what do you think, 5 medium size and 5 large size polo shirts? Are you excited?

Taken from a NSW Police Rural Crime Prevention leaflet:

- Trim vegetation that creates concealment opportunities and blocks the line of sight from the house.

- Install double cylinder deadlocks or deadbolts on all perimeter doors.
 - Don't hide keys outside.
 - Install security interior and exterior lighting. Have spot or floodlights mounted around the building and connected to time switches or movement detectors.
 - Engrave or permanently mark all property with information that is unique to you, such as your driver's licence number.
 - Make a detailed inventory of all personal valuables and household and farm equipment. Record serial and model numbers, inscriptions, replacement value and other identifying features.
 - Photograph or video valuable stock, machinery, jewellery, antiques and other collectables.
 - Ensure guns and ammunition are registered and locked in an approved gun cabinet securely bolted to the floor.
 - Avoid leaving the property unattended at the same time each week.
 - Cancel deliveries while away.
 - Notify Police, trusted friends and neighbours as to where you may be contacted during your absence.

From the North Shore Times, 29 August:

An increased police presence outside Killara High School is targeting driving offences in response to the number of drivers breaking road rules and putting student safety at risk.

From the Hornsby Advocate, 28 August:

Ausgrid crews are expected to begin patrols in Hornsby shortly to check for hazards on the electricity network in the lead up to this year's bushfire danger period. Crews will be on the ground and in helicopters looking for trees growing too close to powerlines. If you spot something dangerous contact Ausgrid on 13 13 65.

WHAT if every woman and child in Australia received free self-defence classes?

That's the hope for 11-time world self-defence champion and Thornleigh resident John Gill, a man who knows the benefits of arming young women with the tools to defend themselves. "I trained a 13-year-old girl who was later grabbed, dragged into a toilet block and gagged," Mr Gill said. "She knew what to do and managed to escape."

The 52-year-old has written to Prime Minister Tony Abbott requesting the Federal Government fund a national self defence program – estimated to cost upwards of $5 million. He said Australia has the world's third-highest rate per capita for rape and male violence claims at least one woman's life every week.

Mr Gill is holding free self defence workshops for women, children, families and the elderly at Thornleigh Squash and Fitness Centre on September 4.

Classes are from 1.30-2.30pm for seniors, 5-6pm for children and parents and 7-8pm for women and families. For more information, visit
