Place: Mona Vale road, Pymble.
Person 1: 52 year old female

Details: The female was travelling with another male in a car on Mona Vale road. The car was stopped due to its manner of driving and the occupants were spoken to. As a result of inquiries the car was searched. A reflective police vest was found still having the officers name on it. The male and female also allegedly had a 'poor' attitude to police. The female received a Criminal Infringement Notice 'CIN'. For Having stolen goods.

Incident: Break Enter & Steal
Time/Date: Between 8.30am and 6pm on Tuesday the 3rd
Place: Mot Pleasant avenue, Normanhurst

Details: The home was broken into via a front window which had been jemmied open. A rear door also was jemmied. About $16,000 worth of electrical goods were stolen in the break-in. There was also another home in which an attempt to break in occurred in the same street and during the same time frame that home had jemmy marks but was not actually entered. Both houses backed onto bush land.

Of note the front window was hidden by over grown plants. This provides a nice hiding spot for offenders and in this case they had sufficient time to jemmy a window without being seen by passers by or neighbours. Warnings: Please trim shrubs and plants to a maximum of waist height and taller trees should have their leaves and branches trimmed at least 2 metres from the ground this provides open sight lines so any offenders have a greater chance of being seen.

More information on this and other home security advice can be obtained from the NSW police website under community issues then crime prevention. There is a comprehensive security audit tool and list for you to follow and upgrade or update your homes security.
