Police Facebook pages have easy buttons for <crime stoppers> <report a crime> and <counter terrorism>.

If you haven't yet ventured into Facebook territory, how about googling 'project eyewatch' and clicking on the direct link to that section of the NSW Police website? If you select <about> from the menu, there's a nifty little video explaining the use of Facebook by the Police. Worth a look, if only to see what all the fuss is about.

Other News:

East Killara NHW Group said goodbye last week to an important member of their NHW community: RIP Jan Langley. Their newsletter contained the following tribute;

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of Jan Langley. Jan was the previous co-ordinator of our Neighbourhood Watch Group. She revitalised the group, in the process visiting all the residences in East Killara. Jan worked tirelessly for our Group and was also involved in many other community organisations.

I remember Jan from East Lindfield Public School where she was awarded Life membership of the Parents and Citizens Association for all her voluntary work at the school. Jan has also been acknowledged for her work in the community with various awards.

Jan was Head Prefect at Abbotsleigh School in 1955. After leaving school she completed a Science Degree at Sydney University. Jan was an Elder at the East Killara Uniting Church and taught Scripture at East Lindfield, Lindfield and West Lindfield Primary Schools. She was Chairman of the Lindara Committee which employed a Social Worker and supplied accommodation for Homeless families on the Upper North Shore.

A large number of people attended her Funeral Service at Killara Uniting Church on 27 October as she was so well respected and liked within the community.

Jan's passing is a great loss to her family and friends and she will be sadly missed by our community.

Remember to report any suspicious activity in the neighbourhood directly to Hornsby Police on 02 94769799. DON'T DELAY IN REPORTING.

Please encourage your neighbours and friends to join our NHW Gordon Mailing list.
