

Kuring-gai NSW Police Local Area Command (LAC)

eNewsletter # 285 - 27 March 2017

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in the NSW Police Force - Kuring-gai Local Area Command (LAC), which includes most of the Hornsby and Ku-ring-gai council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring-gai LAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

🚗 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

🚗 Please feel free to share/forward this eNewsletter with your friends, family, colleagues and neighbours.

27 March, from NSW Road Safety: When driving near buses, don't pull into the lane in front of them too closely, as buses can take a long time to stop. Remember, your driving can affect a busload of people. Watch video.

27 March: #Lifhack: Stopping at a red light reduces your chance of receiving a ticket by 100%

27 March, from NSW Road Safety:

This crash at 60km/h shows why you should always choose the safest car you can afford. Even though they both cost around 10K, the silver car has a five star used car safety rating and the red car has only two stars. In the red car you'd be lucky to survive, but in the silver car, you'd come out relatively unscathed.

Check out star safety ratings here.

27 March: Scene of Crime Officers (SOCOs) hunt and collect for vital clues to solve crimes.

It's not quite CSI but our Soco's detect and collect evidence to assist Police. That's the job of the State's Scene of Crime officers. They are an important part of the policing process. Thank You Soco's.

Naomi Condon and Michael Coonan.

23 March, from Neighbourhood Watch within NSW Police - Kuring Gai Local Area Command:

Neighbourhood Watch within NSW Police - Kuring Gai Local Area Command and Kuring Gai LAC - NSW Police Force had a good team turnout at today's Neighbourhood Watch Development Day. Thanks to NSW Police for organising. Very worthwhile sharing of documents, ideas and tips.

22 March: PYMBLE TO ST IVES Mona Vale Rd between Pacific Hwy and Kitchener St

CHANGED TRAFFIC CONDITIONS

Clearways are in place:

- weekdays 6am-10am and 3pm-7pm
- weekends 9am-6pm, except southbound from Stanley St to Rosedale Rd which will be 2pm-6pm only.

Some changed parking conditions are also in place outside these times. Check signs before parking as vehicles left in clearways will be towed and fines apply.

21 March: Hornsby police did an audit of a local commuter car park and were astonished to see nearly 20 cars with property inside that made them a target for theft.

The property ranged from expensive sun glasses, CD's, GPS units to cash in the console. While these items seem inexpensive at first glance to a thief they all add up to a nice little bounty of goods. Lock it or lose it and out of sight, out of mind. Simple things to remember really and the only thing worse than losing some sunnies or CD's is the damage bill from broken windows or locks. For obvious reasons we won't disclose the car park location, although more car parks will be raided in coming weeks.

WHAT IS YOUR CAR SCREAMING OUT TO THIEVES?

21 March, from Common Sense Media: Haters and trolls are people who go online, often anonymously, and write mean comments, sometimes with the goal of getting a response.

Chances are if your kids are online, they'll encounter both. Here are 5 tips for dealing with haters and trolls.

1. Don't respond.
2. Ignore them.
3. Delete, block or unfollow.
4. Report it.
5. Take screenshots.

21 March: Some parents dropping off children to school in St Ives this morning got a bit of a fright. A police car patrolling near St Ives Park public school (Acron Road) was flagged down by the group at drop off time. The officer was then lead to a 60cm snake laying still on the ground . The snake was later identified as a Brown Tree snake (Boiga irregularis) and was at that time deceased, it was removed by the officer. The snake looks to have fallen from a tree and had a distinctive bulge in its belly, presumably from over eating. The Brown Tree snake is venomous, but its venom is not considered fatal to adult humans. This snake being only 60cm would have been a juvenile as they grow to about 2m. Please be aware during this wet weather snakes and other creatures like spiders can and do venture indoors. Picture is for reference only.

Sunday 26 March: Neighbour Day - REVIEW

'Chinwag Over the Virtual Fence' - a Closed Group discussion on Facebook

Not overly successful... 3 chatted in the group and 5 chatted privately outside the group. Should we try again next year? Here's the posts for your interest:

- Most crime in our command is Break & Enters and Steal from Motor Vehicles. Would it surprise you to know that more than a third of Steal from Motor Vehicles are from unlocked cars? Please lock your car, even if it is on your drive, or in your garage. Please don't leave your keys on the hall table or kitchen counter. The keys are easily found during the B&E and the vehicle stolen at the same time.
- Do you know your neighbours? We recommend two either side, one in front and one behind. Watch out for one another. That's what leads to a feeling of community.
- The biggest problem in our command is mailtheft, leading to Fraud and Identify Theft. When did you review your mailbox security? Have you one of the round uncopyable unique keys called a tubular pin tumbler lock? At the recent Neighbourhood Watch Development Day, we heard from a council mailtheft expert, who told us about the two inadequate requirements currently needing to be addressed by the developers of apartment blocks are:

- the mailboxes must be ergonomically placed for Australia Post, and
- each mailbox must have a lock. (The locks don't even have to be unique. Some blocks have mail boxes all with the same key!!!!)

- Is there someone in your street you would describe as Socially Isolated? We have a leaflet, "Our 20 Favourite Crime Prevention Tips for the Socially Isolated" that could be of use. You can easily download it from our website and pop round with a copy? Good excuse for a neighbourly visit?
- I have two neighbours away this weekend. I shall move any newspapers to hide them behind the wall. I shall park in their driveway. What things do you do to help keep a neighbour's home safe?
- I'll start with a warning ⚠️. My neighbour was broken into on Friday between 8:30 and 11:30am. The crims came inbetween two houses to get round the back, where I believe they removed fly screens and jemmied the locked sash windows. Laptop, jewellery and a watch were stolen and a holdall was taken, so the crims could walk insignificantly to the Gordon train station.

Thank you to Tony, Mary, Mick and others. "I spent a very enjoyable hour at the NHW Mingle and we did mingle with a quite a few people."

24 March: Police are searching for a man after a hotel room was booby trapped in Sydney's eastern suburbs.

About 3pm on Wednesday 22 March 2017, emergency services were called to a hotel room on Campbell Street, Bondi, following reports of a fire. Once at the location, the fire was extinguished and it was discovered the room had been booby trapped. No one was injured and the room was made safe. Officers from Eastern Suburbs Local Area Command commenced investigations into the incident and would like to speak to a man who they believe may be able to assist with their inquiries.

The man, who is named as 27-year-old Thomas Hunt is described as being of Caucasian appearance, about 175-180cm tall with a thin build. He has blue eyes and a shaved head. He is also described as having a chipped front tooth.

Police hold concerns for the welfare of Mr Hunt and anyone with information is urged to come forward.

23 March, from the Hornsby Advocate: Charity donations and cash taken during robberies in Wahroonga

Wahroonga

1 Seven Wahroonga shops on Railway Ave were targeted in a spate of burglaries on Sunday night. Three stores lost hundreds of dollars, while four others showed signs of an attempted break-in. McFarland's Gourmet Meat butcher Grant Druce said a thief took around $300-400 from his store, including a charity tin which was on the counter. Ku-ring-gai Local Area Command crime prevention officer Senior Constable Paul Cleary said police believed the burglaries occurred between the hours of 4.30pm on Sunday and 5am on Monday. "We sent forensics around to look for fingerprints and DNA that may have been left at the scene and we are reviewing CCTV in the area."

Dural

4 Castle Hill Fire and Rescue were called out to check the safety of a house in Dural after a car ran into it. The call came just before 1.30pm on Saturday after a car hit the house in Caber Close.

Statewide

6 NSW Police detected 35 drivers who tested positive to drugs during a "national day of drug testing" on Monday March 20. NSW Police Highway Patrol with the assistance of local area commands across the state, spent a day pulling over trucks and other vehicles and testing drivers for drugs. Throughout the day officers tested a total of 2841 drivers, including 1799 truck drivers. Of the drivers tested, 35 drivers — including 20 truck drivers — returned positive readings.

North Shore

7 The man known as the North Shore Rapist — who hunted and sexually assaulted eight women and teenage girls 20 years ago — can be named after he lost an attempt in the Supreme Court to put a permanent suppression order on his identity. Graham Kay, 65, is a high risk sex offender who will continue to be electronically monitored for the next three years after Justice Ian Harrison last week granted an application by the state to extend a Corrective Services supervision order. Since being released from jail after serving 18 years, Kay had been living in obscurity working mostly as a labourer at a Sydney fruit market.

The fake doctor at the centre of a NSW Health controversy worked out of Royal North Shore Hospital in 2012, Northern Sydney Local Health District has confirmed. Shyam Acharya, also known as Dr Sarang Chitale, worked shifts at RNSH between November 4 and 17 almost five years ago. Mr Acharya fled the country just days before he was due to front court charged with falsely representing himself as a doctor. He is still on the run.

From NSW Fair Trading: A New Era for Strata Owners: get involved to improve the way you live.

Strata laws in NSW have been modernised to suit the way we live, today and beyond. Getting renovations approved is now simpler and there are online options for meetings and voting. Your strata community will need to review its rules (called by-laws) and consider any updates, such as the decision to allow pets and on what terms. There are new model by-laws to help with this process.

Whether you own, manage or live in a strata property, find out how else the new laws affect you here.

From "Our 20 Favourite Crime Prevention Tips for the Socially Isolated":

Tip #14. Don't tell burglars you live alone. Leave an answering machine greeting that says "We can't come to the phone right now... " even if you live alone. If someone is at the door, call out loudly to your imaginary room-mate that you will answer it, "Don't worry—I'll get it!" Don't list your first name on the apartment directory, or name plate.

Tip #15. Don't give out date of birth, credit card or bank account details, ever!

Tip #16. Don't leave door unlocked when expecting a visitor. Wait until they arrive.

Tip #17. DO NOT OPEN THE DOOR TO STRANGERS! If they require your help in an emergency, offer to phone on their behalf.

Tip #18. If you are a carer, leave notes for the next carer out-of-sight, never on the front door.

Tip #19. Don't sign anything. But, if you have... use any cooling-off period to discuss issues with trusted friends or family.

Tip #20. Keep emergency numbers as easy dial/memory on your phone. Keep the phone by the bed, along with a torch for emergencies. Report anything suspicious.

From the North Shore Times, 23 March: Car thieves stay away from north CARS in Ku-ring-gai are as safe as houses, an analysis of NSW crime figures shows. Drivers on the north shore can sleep easy knowing their vehicles are the least likely to be stolen in Sydney. And they are also the cheapest in Sydney to insure. Analysis provided to the North Shore Times by Finder.com.au, showed an average of 30.6 car thefts were reported in the Ku-ring-gai local government area per 100,000 people in the year to September 2016.

HEY TOSSER! PUT IT IN THE BIN

Hey Tosser! did you know litter damages our natural environments, harms wildlife and sea creatures, can injure people and makes our spaces less safe and healthy? So when you toss your cigarette butt or your coffee cup, you're hurting the environment. In fact, a global study found that by 2050 it's likely that 95% of all several species will have plastic in their gut.

The Hey Tosser! campaign has been developed to change littering behaviour in NSW and with an immediate goal to reduce the volume of litter in NSW by 40% by 2020. NSW is almost halfway there – with a 19% litter reduction since the start of the campaign in 2013–14, but there is still a way to go.

Some easy ways to help reduce litter:

- Report littering from vehicles See EPA webpage on [How to Report Littering from a Vehicle here - ed],
- Keep a bag in your car to collect rubbish and butts,
- Butt your cigarette out and then put it in the bin,
- Encourage others to pick up their litter,
- Put your rubbish in the bin or take it with you,
- Help your local council with local litter projects,
- Speak to your friends and family and encourage positive behaviour.

Neighbourhood Watch within NSW Police - Kuring Gai Local Area Command is encouraging everyone to get on board. Visit 'Hey Tosser!' for more information about littering in NSW.
