eNewsletter # 286 - 03 April 2017

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in the NSW Police Force - Kuring-gai Local Area Command (LAC), which includes most of the Hornsby and Ku-ring-gai council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues.

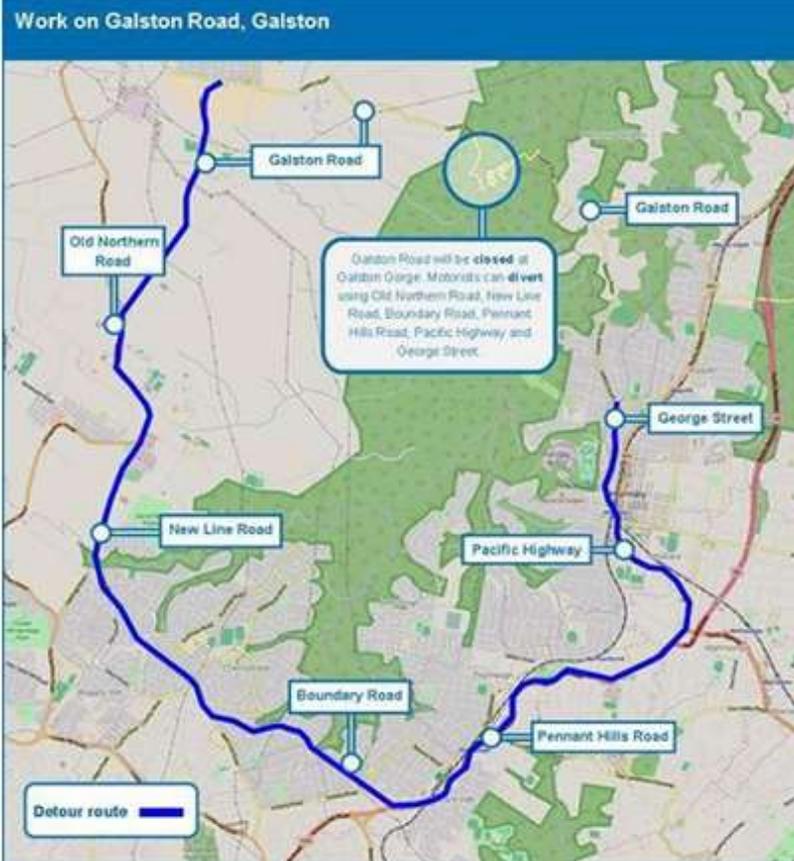

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring-gai LAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!").

🚗 Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Please email our NHW in Ku-ring-gai & Hornsby volunteers. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

31 March, Hornsby Police News

Hornsby police recovered a car that was stolen eight months ago being driven by a disqualified driver who had it hot-wired and were called to a house fire on Dangar Island this week. Here's a few of the crimes they investigated in the area recently:

Pennant Hills: A silver Mazda hatchback stolen from Turrumurra on March 24 during a break and enter led police on a chase before it was terminated for safety reasons on Monday, March 27. Police responded to an aggravated break and enter in Beecroft which, led them to believe a credit card used about 2.10am on Monday was linked to a stolen car that they saw on Pennant Hills Rd at that time. The car accelerated in excess of the speed limit and turned onto the M2 before going back to Pennant Hills Rd. Police believe a 25-year-old caucasian man wearing shorts, a dark coloured shirt and white runners was involved. The pursuit was terminated due to speed and dangerous driving. Police are reviewing CCTV footage from a Shell service station.

Cowan: A Ford courier ute stolen from a driveway in Mt Colah in July was found last week with stolen numberplates allegedly being driven by a man who was disqualified from driving until 2019. About 11.15am on Wednesday, March 22 highway patrol at the M1 motorway saw a white ute going north approach an emergency services U-turn bay. Police followed it and it drove into a side lane before it stopped at a gate and the driver allegedly ran off. Police pursued and caught the man, who allegedly was disqualified from driving until February 2019. The vehicle had plates from another car attached to it and had been hot-wired. Inquiries are continuing and it is likely charges will follow.

Hornsby: A total of $620 worth of manuka honey was stolen from the Chemist Warehouse between 3.10pm and 3.30pm on Friday, March 24. A man described as Asian, with a moustache, about 40, in a black tracksuit, was allegedly seen on CCTV to walk up to the items and take them.

Galston: A home and cars were broken into along Hansen Ave, Lackenwood Cres and Johnson Rd recently and police believe the offences may be linked. A Hyundai parked on Lackenwood Cres, was left unlocked in a driveway and another car, also left unlocked were both ransacked between 3.15pm on Thursday, March 23 and 7.20pm on Friday, March 24. At a similar time a home in Hansen Ave had a car left unlocked in the driveway and was ransacked. At the same home two wheelie bins were used as a ram to attempt to open the side gates. Hornsby police are urging anyone with information to call 9476 9799.

Hornsby: Football boots and a charger were stolen from a Ford Laser parked at Hornsby Railway carpark between 9pm on Saturday, March 25 and 7am on Sunday.

Dangar Island: A house fire caused about $15,000 damage and one person was taken to hospital with smoke inhalation on Sunday March 26. About 7.55pm a family in a two storey home were downstairs having dinner when they heard a bang in a bedroom upstairs where the curtains had been set alight. RFS crews from Brooklyn and Dangar Island contained the fire. A lamp may have caused the fire.

Turrumurra: A pool filter caught fire at a home on Burns Rd about 11.10am on Sunday, March 26. The homeowner was alerted to the fire by a dog barking. The resident used a garden hose to put it out but the fire scorched the home's brick exterior.

Hornsby: A $700 TV was stolen from Bing Lee about 2.45pm on Sunday March 26. the TV was in a trolley ready for a customer to purchase when someone pushed the trolley out of the store without paying.

When you call emergency services the number ONE most important thing for you to know is your LOCATION.

Without your location, Police, Fire or Ambulance services are unable to get help to you, or may be severely delayed in getting help to you, putting your life, or others lives at greater risk.

The Emergency + app allows you to call Triple Zero in an emergency and it provides you with a map of your location as well as coordinates, so you can pass that information onto Emergency Services quickly, getting help to you faster.

Car parking a nightmare: Frustration grows as commuters forced into streets surrounding rail station

Rebecca Parish

PARKING around Turrumurra station has been branded a “nightmare”, with one resident laying the blame firmly with Ku-ring-gai Council.

Growing population and a lack of parking has residents and business owners frustrated, so much so that if North Turrumurra’s Craig Badings can avoid driving to the station, he will.

“Most days my wife, a teacher at the local Bush school, drops me off ... However, every now and then I have to drive to the station and park, a journey which has become a nightmare,” he told the North Shore Times.

Mr Badings has commuted from the station for seven years but said the situation had worsened in recent times because of new development.

He said parking options around Turrumurra station included Rohini St and the short-term parking on Gilroy Lane. However, most long-term spots filled up by 6.45am, forcing many to park in the surrounding streets, he added.

“Turrumurra is a rapidly growing area,” he said.

“I am all for the density developments along the transport corridors ... But I’m afraid the council has stuffed up royally.”

The situation is not set to get better any time soon though as Ku-ring-gai Council progresses the Turrumurra Community Hub Masterplan. Construction on the project is anticipated in 2020-21, by which time targets of 4000 extra dwellings in the local government area will need to have been met.

“The question needs to be asked where is the commensurate infrastructure to help residents in that area,” Mr Badings said.

While Ku-ring-gai Council admitted the Turrumurra town centre was “tired and fragmented”, a council spokeswoman said the masterplan aimed to provide a blueprint to reactivate the area.

“Car parking in the Hub will include additional car parking for the new facilities ... as well as car parking for the existing strip shops on Pacific Highway and in William St,” she said.

The lack of parking is also a problem for business owners, such as Ray White Turrumurra and Wahroonga principal Greg Windel.

Mr Windel said not only did his staff members struggle to find parking spaces in the area, but many had to move their cars every two hours because they were forced to park in the short-term spaces. “I think there’s been a lot of redevelopment on the north shore ... and I think the community centres are probably lagging behind,” he said.

From Ku-ring-gai Council:
Information session in April on elder abuse

Ku-ring-gai Council tackles the sensitive subject of the abuse of older people at this discreet info session on Thursday 20 April.

Elder abuse can take many forms and includes financial coercion, emotional, sexual and physical abuse of elderly people, either in their own home or in care.

According to the World Health Organisation, elder abuse can occur “within any relationship where there is an expectation of trust and which causes harm or distress to an older person.”

Experts in aged care say the problem is a growing one, but many older people are reluctant to speak out. Often the abusers are close family members.

One developing issue is ‘inheritance impatience’, where family members or carers will use a variety of methods to access the finances of the older person in advance of their death.

Staff from the Elder Abuse Helpline and Resource Unit will be running the session, highlighting the signs of abuse and what people can do to stop it.

The Elder Abuse Helpline is a free and confidential statewide service, part of the NSW Government’s strategy on ageing.

The Helpline provides information, support and referrals relating to the abuse of older people and callers can remain anonymous. The Helpline’s number is 1800 628 221.

The Council’s info session, which costs $10 per person, will take place in Council Chambers at Level 3 818 Pacific Highway Gordon on Thursday 20 April from 10.30am to 11.30am. Morning tea will be served from 10am

From Hornsby Council
Hornsby trolleys to be locked in place

There will soon be far less shopping trolleys littering the streets of Hornsby, with Westfield and their retailers agreeing to install appropriate trolley control solutions to ensure that trolleys are maintained within the shopping centre boundary.

The preferred option at this stage is a wheel-locking mechanism, similar to those that have been installed on trolleys at Westfield in Chatswood and Bondi.

The wheels will lock at every entrance and exit of the centre, including the mall-facing entrances.

“The illegal removal and dumping of trolleys has become a major concern and Council has been working hard with Westfield and the retailers to find the best solution,” Hornsby Shire Mayor Steve Russell said.

“Westfield has always been a responsible corporate citizen and this is another example of them listening to the community and cooperating with Council to achieve the best results.”

Westfield Regional Manager Jason Knott said similar wheel-locking systems are being trialled at other Westfield centres.
