Project 'eyewatch' Update:

Project eyewatch is to be discussed this Wednesday at the Kuring Gai Local Area Command 'Community Safety & Policing Committee' (the Precinct). Hopefully a plan is to be put in place for a formal media release and rollout involving the Police and Neighbourhood Watch groups in our LAC early next year. Any comments?

The Police already have a profile page on facebook, ready for public involvement. Have you had a look? "Kuring Gai LAC - NSW Police Force".

How about asking a question, or commenting on a post there?

Next year, Neighbourhood Watch is hoping to join council with a stand at the Seniors Day Expo in March, being held at the St Ives Shopping Village. Please think of any suggestions about information, themes, leaflets you would like to see there. Maybe you would like to join us on the stand for a part of the day?

Other News:

This week, the Kuring Gai Police & Community Safety Committee (KPCSC) met for its quarterly meeting. All Neighbourhood Watch groups are represented on this committee, as well as other organisations in the community, council, etc. If you have any issue you would like raised, please email GordonNHW@gmail.com.

KPCSC is reviewing what are seen as safety issues in our area for consideration next year. Have you any suggestions? Please have a think about a safety issue that bothers you - big or small - in the Ku-ring-gai Municipality.

Currently, KPCSC organises the 'PARENT SURVIVAL STRATEGIES FOR TEACHING YOUNG DRIVERS' seminars held during the year at the Ku-ring-gai Council Chambers. They also take part in alternate years with a 'Mental Health Forum' as part of October's Mental Health Month.

Remember to report any suspicious activity in the neighbourhood directly to Hornsby Police on 02 9476 9799. DON'T DELAY IN REPORTING.

Please encourage your neighbours and friends to join our NHW Gordon Mailing list.
