Incident: Speeding and drink driving.

Time/Date: About 11.50 pm on Saturday the 12th

Place: Pacific highway Wahroonga.

Vehicle 1: Commodore sedan

Driver 1: 27 year old male from Castle Hill.

Details: Police in a fully marked highway patrol car have allegedly seen the Commodore 'try' to do a burnout as it came out of a service station on the pacific highway. Police have followed the Commodore a short time when the Commodore has turned sharply into a side street allegedly causing severe body roll as it did so. The speed of the Commodore increased to an alleged 80km/h in the 50 zone. The commodore has then allegedly 'launched' off several speed bumps at speed and at one point becoming airborne. Despite the police cars having light's and sirens turned on the Commodore continued for some time before stopping in Munderra Avenue, Wahroonga. The driver had 2 passengers at the time. The driver is then alleged to have failed to give a sufficient sample for a roadside breath test and was arrested. A subsequent test at the police station gave a result of .111. The driver had his license suspended by police.

Court: The male is to appear at the Hornsby local Court on the 8th of

Project 'eyewatch' Update:

More detailed information will be made available next week on how to communicate with the Project eyewatch team.

Our local Facebook page: "Neighbourhood Watch - Gordon Area 24/12", Please like and friend and share.

Others to note: "Ku-ring-gai LAC - NSW Police Force", "Project eyewatch - NSW Police Force", "KRGprecinctcoord Julia", "Mount Colah Neighbourhood Watch".

Police Facebook pages have easy buttons for <crime stoppers> <report a crime> and <counter terrorism>.

If you haven't yet ventured into Facebook territory, how about googling 'project eyewatch' and clicking on the direct link to that section of the NSW Police website? If you select <about> from the menu, there's a nifty little video explaining the use of Facebook by the Police. Worth a look, if only to see what all the fuss is about.
