Newsletter # 132 - 07 April 2014

This email is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in the Kuring Gai Police Local Area Command (LAC), which includes the Hornsby and Ku-ring-gai areas. Anyone may join our distribution list by emailing: NHWGordon@gmail.com.

Each weekly update includes a selection of 'posts' from the Kuring Gai LAC facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'). One important post on the Monday is the Media Release from our Crime Prevention Officer.

We add to this all the other stuff we find interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view. It could be local newspaper articles, roadwork warnings, crime prevention tips, Neighbourhood Watch meetings and relevant tit-bits gleaned from residents, or other Commands. Have you seen anything we should share with the community?

Please continue to email us anything you may know of, that others may appreciate: NHWGordon@gmail.com. Thank you.

04 April, from our Crime Prevention Officer, Snr Cn Paul Cleary: Swimming pools. Yesterday I had to go to a unit block for a security audit. The unit block had a communal pool area that was outside and enclosed by glass panels and a pool gate. I decided to investigate further and found the pool gate did NOT self close after being opened. That is, I opened the gate and it just stayed open. I have been in contact with management there and will ensure it is repaired and compliant with regulations. Which brings a reminder just because colder weather is upon us does not mean we let our guard down. Do a check on your pool fence and gate. Does it comply? Is it safe? Is it registered (came into effect last November). The life you save.....!

The complete law is explained on the NSW Fair Trading Pool Fencing Requirements page.

For Paul's case above, the NSW Fair Trading page states:

- If the gate does not shut and lock automatically, the pool gate should be permanently fastened until a new lock and closing device can be installed.
 - All fence bolts, screws and fasteners must be tight and in good order. Any loose bolts, screws and fasteners should be tightened or replaced.
 - Self-closing gate hinges, locks and latches should be sprayed with lubricating oil or silicone.

04 April, Drug bust in Berowra:

Investigators from Strike Force Raptor have seized more than $1.4 million worth of cannabis and a large quantity of mushrooms – suspected of being psilocin (–magic mushrooms–) – following search warrants at properties in Sydney’s north and north-west.

After receiving information concerning a cannabis supply operation, police from Strike Force Raptor executed a search warrant at a property on Woodcourt Road, Berowra Heights, shortly before 7am on Wednesday (2 April 2014).

Inside the property, police located:

- Approximately 3kg of cannabis;
- Approximately 1.9kg of mushrooms suspected of being psilocin;
- Two cannabis seedlings; and,
- Dozens of cannabis seeds.

Four people were inside the property when police arrived. One of them, a 37-year-old man with links to the Rebels outlaw motorcycle gang, was spoken to by police and is expected to be issued with a court attendance notice for drug offences. A 35-year-old woman, who was also present at the property, was found to be in possession of capsicum spray and will be issued a court attendance notice for possession of a prohibited weapon.

On the same day (Wednesday 2 April 2014), investigators from Strike Force Raptor executed a search warrant at a large semi-rural property in Leets Vale. Over the course of the search, which was conducted on Wednesday evening and throughout Thursday (3 April 2014), investigators located a total of 685 cannabis plants, with an estimated street value of $1.37 million. A 64-year-old man who lives on the property is assisting police with their inquiries, and charges are expected to be laid in relation to the crop site.

Strike Force Raptor was established by State Crime Command’s Gangs Squad in 2009. It is a proactive and high-impact operation targeting outlaw motorcycle gangs and any associated criminal enterprises.

Anyone with information to assist police is asked to contact Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000 or report it directly to detectives via the Strike Force Raptor online

reporting page. Photographs and videos can be uploaded to the online reporting page. Information you provide will be treated in the strictest of confidence.

03 April, a warning from Stay Smart Online: Cold call phone scam targets Telstra customers: SSO Alert Priority High Scammers using a well-known type of phone scam (also commonly described as cold calling or tech support scams) are currently targeting Telstra customers. Scammers are contacting people at home, telling them that they are putting Telstra's infrastructure at risk, and that because their computer has been hacked or infected their internet may be disconnected. The scammers claim to be able to fix the issue on the spot, and of course, will seek a fee for the service as well as insisting that "software" be downloaded to your computer giving them remote control access to your computer.

03 April, from the Hornsby Advocate: Fraudsters target apartments in Hornsby and upper north shore, police say

It is becoming rife across the upper north shore yet many people don't even realise their credit card details have been stolen until a hefty bill has been racked up. Fraud figures across Kuring-gai Local Area Command have risen in the past four years. Many of these fraud offences relate to stealing petrol at service stations and identify theft, but one of the most prevalent fraud crimes in the Hornsby area is credit card theft. The most popular way to steal credit cards, particularly on the north shore, is by going through people's mailboxes. Thieves target high-rise apartment blocks up and down the Pacific Highway, from Hornsby to Chatswood, looking for buildings with large numbers of letterboxes to increase their chances of finding a credit card.

02 April: If you would like to borrow an engraver to mark your possessions, please contact our Crime Prevention Officer Snr Con Paul Cleary at Hornsby Police Station. Phone 9476 9799.

Our Crime Prevention Officer, Snr Con Paul Cleary, was guest speaker tonight (31 March) at the local Turrumurra Neighbourhood Watch (NHW) (aka Gordon Areas 3/4) meeting. He warned members of the latest scams to be aware of, he detailed the 'Next of Kin' program for those in the community living alone, and discussed crime issues in our area. Of note was a spate of activity in St Ives last Friday night on Stanley St and Newhaven Place, targeting theft from storage cages and cars.

Paul had brought along one of the six engravers that had been delivered today, kindly donated to the command by Gordon NHW group.

The photo shows Carroll Howe, Area Coordinator for Turrumurra Neighbourhood Watch (NHW) group, with one of the engravers. The engravers will be available to borrow by anyone wishing to mark their valuables with their Drivers Licence number. This not only identifies your property for possible return, but can also tie an offender to a break & enter address for any subsequent criminal case.

Dob in a bushland dumper

The dumping of green waste, building materials and other waste in bushland areas introduces weed species, threatens local biodiversity and can increase bushfire fuel loads, particularly where houses back on to bushland. Help us by reporting illegal bushland dumping on 9424

From Careflight, April 07: Emergency services rushed to a Berowra Height home, in Sydney's north, to treat a toddler who tumbled three metres down stairs late today.

CareFlight landed at Berowra Park shortly after 6 pm where police met the doctor and duty paramedic and took them to the home. The CareFlight doctor said the 20-month-old girl was left with a bruised face but no other obvious injuries. The doctor and ambulance paramedics continued observation as the toddler, accompanied also by her mother, was taken in a road ambulance to the Children's Hospital at Westmead. The little girl arrived at the hospital in a stable condition, to be monitored as a precaution because of the nature of her accident.

From NSW Fair Trading: Deck and balcony safety

There have been a number of recent incidents in NSW and other States involving balconies and decks resulting in injury and death.

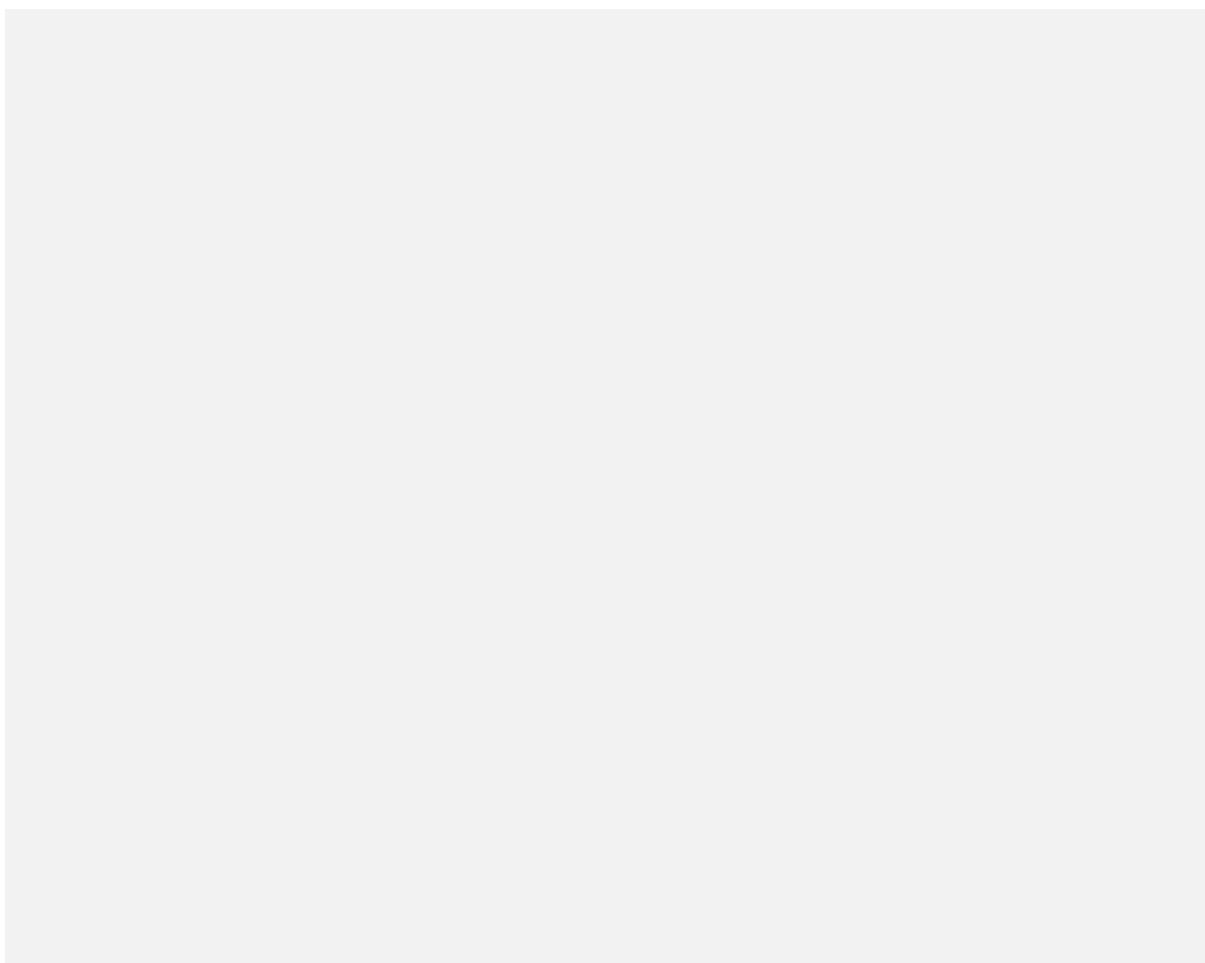

Balconies, decks, balustrades and railings must be built to meet the requirements of the Building Code of Australia and relevant Australian Standards.

The Building Code requires the structure and materials used to build a balcony or deck withstand the normal stresses that would be placed on it.

Decks and balconies, like all parts of our homes and other buildings, require routine and regular maintenance to keep them in good repair and to identify any emerging issues.

Under NSW tenancy laws, landlords must provide and maintain rented premises in a reasonable state of repair. At the beginning of a tenancy, any faults or damage should be noted on the condition report that must be completed and signed by both parties.
