

Kuring Gai NSW Police Local Area Command (LAC)

eNewsletter # 173 - 02 February 2015

This weekly eNewsletter is compiled by Neighbourhood Watch volunteers as a service for residents in the Kuring Gai Police Local Area Command (LAC), which includes most of the Hornsby and Ku-ring-gai council areas. The eNewsletter is a new type of Neighbourhood Watch; utilising the available technology to keep people more connected and up-to-date with local crime and safety issues. Click here to join our distribution list.

The eNewsletter includes a selection of posts from the Kuring Gai LAC Facebook page (also known as 'eyewatch'), primarily for those not familiar with Facebook. We add anything interesting from a Neighbourhood Watch point-of-view - this could be a local newspaper article, a roadwork warning, crime prevention tip(s), an upcoming Neighbourhood Watch meeting, Q&As from residents, or an item from an other Police command ("Crooks know no boundaries!"). Have you seen anything we should share with the community? Click here to email Gordon NHW. We do value your contributions. Thank you for your support.

02 February, Heading to work? Are you prepared for the risks and hazards on the road when riding your motorcycle?

Check out some safety tips and test your riding skills online with a virtual hazard test, click here.

And drivers, don't forget to check your blind spots especially when changing lanes and help motorcyclists ride to live.

There is also a great video from Transport for NSW about Motorcycle Lane Filtering, click here.

Please watch that as well as the one mentioned in this post. Keep safe!

02 February, from the Hornsby Advocate: Police appeal for information after teenage girl approached at Brooklyn

POLICE are appealing for information after a teenage girl was approached by a man at Hawkesbury River railway station at Brooklyn. Police said the 15-year-old girl was waiting for a train about 1.20pm on January 22 when she was approached by the man, who spoke to her inappropriately, causing her to fear for her safety. The teenager moved to another section of the platform and boarded a southbound train, alighting at Hornsby, where she observed the same man leaving the station. The incident was reported to police on Friday, January 30.

Detectives from Ku-ring-gai Local Area Command are investigating the incident and want to speak to the man who is aged 20 to 30 years, has a caucasian appearance, is tall, with a thin build and short, sandy-coloured hair. Police are urging anyone with information to call Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.

Police are also encouraging parents to discuss "safe people, safe places" messages with their children, including:

- Make sure your parents or another adult knows where you are at all times;
- Always walk straight home or to the place you are walking to. Walk near busier roads and streets, or use paths where there are lots of other people;
- Know where safe places are " a shop, service station, police station, library or school. If you are ever frightened, you should go to one of these

- places and ask them to call the police;
- Learn about safe adults you can look for and talk to if you need help – police officers, teachers at school, adults you know and trust;
 - Don't talk to people you don't know and never get into a car with someone you don't know. If a car stops on the side of the road and you don't know the person inside, do not stop;
 - If you are scared and can use a phone, call 000 and tell them you are scared; and
 - If someone tries to grab you, yell out, "Go away, I don't know you". This lets other people know you have been approached by someone you don't know.

Local: Stolen mail emerges as new currency to obtain drugs

STOLEN mail has emerged as a new currency in the drug world with dealers accepting mail in exchange for hits. Police say addicts are targeting lower north shore unit blocks in a desperate search for valuable letters that can be used for identity theft or credit card fraud. "It's mostly the high density buildings they are hitting where they can get 20 to 30 mailboxes," Senior Constable Michael Adams from North Sydney Police's Proactive Crime Team said.

CCTV footage shows a man rifling through apartment building mailboxes looking for cheques, credit cards and banking documents.

30 January: Police from Chifley Local Area Command are appealing for information to locate a man wanted by virtue of outstanding warrants.

Paul Vautin, aged 32, is currently wanted on warrants for the offences of larceny and drug supply. He is described as being of Caucasian appearance, about 182cm tall, with a medium build, and has brown hair and brown eyes. He also has several tattoos including the word "CASSIE" on his left forearm.

Anyone who sees Paul is urged not to approach him, but instead to contact police immediately via Triple Zero (000). Alternatively, anyone who has information about his whereabouts can call Bathurst Police Station on (02) 6332-8699 or via Crime Stoppers on 1800 333 000.

29 January: Advice on the security of belongings

A reminder on avoiding making yourself a potential victim of crime by remaining vigilant over your personal belongings.

* When shopping keep wallets and purses secure and closed. Remember not to leave them in an open purse or bag on a shopping trolley, this will assist to prevent their theft while you are distracted going about your business.

It is equally important not to invite thieves into your vehicles.

These little hints assist making your property more secure and crime more difficult for criminals to commit. It assists lowering the chance of you becoming a victim of crime and keeps the Kuring Gai Command a safer environment.

Think before you TREK promotes the benefits of planning ahead for your bushwalking trip by using an easy to remember acronym:

- T - Take adequate supplies of food, water, navigation and first aid equipment.
- R - Register your planned route and tell friends and family when you expect to return.
- E - Emergency beacon (PLB's) are available free of charge from NSW Police Force (in the Blue Mountains) and NPWS.
- K - Keep to your planned route and follow the map and walking trails.

28 January, from the Daily Telegraph: Pair's lucky escape after car bursts into flames on M1 motorway at Mt Kuring-gai

TWO people had a lucky escape after their car slid into the path of a truck before it burst into flames on the M1 motorway at Mt Kuring-gai early this morning. Police said the Toyota RAV4 was travelling northbound in heavy rain about 1.45am when it hit a pool of water, causing it to aquaplane. The vehicle slid and hit the rock wall, then did a 360 degree spin before stopping in the path of the Kenworth truck. The truck braked heavily but hit the rear of the RAV4. Two occupants quickly escaped the vehicle before it burst into flames. The driver, a 26-year-old woman, and a passenger were taken to Royal North Shore Hospital with whiplash. The 51-year-old truck driver was unhurt.

Ku-ring-gai Local Area Command crime prevention officer Paul Cleary said the pair were very lucky and he urged motorists to reduce speed in the wet weather. "Normally in wet weather it's 10km/h off the prevailing speed but as the conditions, visibility and road surface deteriorate consider knocking 20km/h or 30km/h off or more," he said.

From ABC.NET.AU, 01 February: Older drivers need to consider 'retiring' to other forms of transport, research says

Older people should be encouraged to use public transport and other methods of getting around before they have to give up their driver's licence, research from the Monash University Accident Research Centre has found. Australia will see an "explosion" in the number of drivers over the age of 65, making up 20 per cent of the people on the road by 2040. Right now, about 70 per cent of older people use their car as their sole form of transport. Only about 22 per cent walk or use public transport. Others do not walk because of fears about traffic and personal security.

From Yahoo 7 News, 31 January: Govt app to help reduce shark attacks

A new shark safety app will help NSW beach-goers know when it's safe to go back in the water. The SharkSmart app, launched on Saturday by the NSW government, provides basic information on sharks and how to identify and avoid them.

Tips include keeping out of the water during twilight or darkness and avoiding areas popular with diving seabirds. Meanwhile, a map page helps direct users to beaches protected by shark nets.

From Infasecure, 30 January: How to fix twisted straps (without losing your mind).

Twisted straps may look innocent enough, and it can be hair-pullingly frustrating having to untwist them – but in an accident they can cause significant injury to your child. A flat shoulder strap spreads the load of an accident evenly across the point of contact with your child. This reduces the forces applied to their shoulders and chest. A twisted shoulder strap concentrates those forces over a smaller area. This increases the stress applied to your child's shoulders and chest, which can cause injury. Think about how painful a heavy plastic shopping bag can be on your hand – it's the same kind of thing.

From Neighbourhood Watch Australasia: How to prepare your child to walk or bike ride safely to school and back

It is that time of the year when our children are back to school. In some cases walking or riding a bike is the best option to get to school. While this can be fun for your child, you still have to feel assured they are safe while doing it. If you are allowing your children to walk or ride to and from school then here are a few quick tips to help keep them safe.

- Choose the safest route possible. It is a great idea to practice riding or walking to school with your child. While on the practice run look out for the hazard spots and then decide which would be the safest route for your child to take.
- Teach your child to only cross at intersections. Show your child the intersections to cross at and to always look both ways before crossing. Make sure they always use a pedestrian crossing as a priority point to cross any road.
- Arrange for your child to walk with a buddy or as part of an organised walking school bus. It can be fun to walk with a friend, or with an organised walking school bus. It also helps everyone feel more safe.
- Never get into a stranger's car. Make sure you advise your child to never talk to strangers and never get into a stranger's car.
- Always obey traffic signs and lights. Traffic lights are there to keep you safe.
- Reassure your child daily. Discuss the route your child will take to school daily. This allows your child to have a clear understanding of what is happening for his/her trip to and from school.
- Have a family password. As a family decide on a secret word, that is only known by your family and is easy to remember. If plans change and a friend was to pick up your child, then they would need to disclose the family password before your child went with them. This allows your child to feel safe with the new arrangements.

School to be investigated

THE Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Abuse will next month begin a hearing involving Knox Grammar and the Uniting Church in Australia between 1970 and 2012.

It relates to concerns about inappropriate conduct by a number of teachers towards students at Knox.

In 2010, former teacher

Craig Treloar was jailed for two years for sex offences against boys, aged 11 to 13, who attended Knox in 1986-87.

The commission will investigate the systems in place at Knox in relation to raising and responding to concerns about child sexual abuse. The hearings begin in Sydney on February 23.

HORNSBY ADVOCATE, Thursday, January 29, 2015 03

Congratulations to Carroll Howe, our Turramurra Neighbourhood Watch coordinator and Volunteer in Policing at Kuring Gai Local Area Command, on being awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for service to the community of Ku-ring-gai.

From the Hornsby Advocate, 29 January: Caring servant rewarded for services to community

HORNSBY'S Carroll Howe was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) for service to the community of Ku-ring-gai. Ms Howe has been the chairwoman of the Ku-ringgai Police and Community Safety Committee since 2003 and was the secretary for 17 years before that. She was the area director of Zonta International's NSW branch from 2012-2014, and has been the president and secretary of the Zonta Club of Hornsby Ku-ring-gai since 1997. Zonta advances the status of women through service and advocacy. She is the co-ordinator of the Parent Survival Strategies for Teaching Young Drivers Seminars, a task she has had since 2006. Other service includes being a member of Hornsby and Region Community Drug Action Team from 2006-2012 and area co-ordinator for Neighbourhood Watch for the Gordon area since 1994, which she served as secretary for eight years. She has also volunteered at the Ku-ring-gai Police Local Area Command since 2011. Ms Howe was a member of Hornsby's Homelessness Task Force, which helps to care for homeless people living on the streets.

From the Hornsby Advocate, 29 January:

9 BEROWRA Canteen shutters at Berowra Public School were targeted by vandals during the holidays. Police said a pink texta was used to scrawl illegible letters. Police found a bong and alcohol cans in the vicinity.

2 BEROWRA HEIGHTS Police are investigating an attempted dog poisoning at Berowra Heights on Sunday night. The dog's owner's heard it barking about 8.30pm and found it with a satchel of Ratsak in its mouth. They immediately took the dog, a Shiba Inu, to the vet, where it was given the all clear. Police conducted a doorknock of nearby homes and investigations are continuing.

3 HORNSBY A stolen car allegedly reached 175km/h during a police pursuit on the M1 motorway from Mooney Mooney to Hornsby on Sunday. Traffic and Highway Patrol officers were patrolling the motorway about 7.50am when they noticed a white Toyota station wagon allegedly travelling at high speed. Officers attempted to stop the vehicle and a pursuit began, during which the vehicle allegedly reached speeds of 175km/h in a 110km/h zone. Police used road spikes to stop the vehicle on Pennant Hills Rd. A 20-year-old man has been charged with not stopping when directed to by police, exceeding the speed limit, driving with a suspended licence, stealing a motor vehicle and custody of a knife in a public place. He is to appear at Burwood Local Court on February 5.

From UK Cop Humour: UKCK Top Tip #54:

“If you’re being chased by a police dog, try not to go through a tunnel, then on to a little seesaw, then jump through a hoop of fire. They’re trained for that.”
